“We all were totally blown away by Simon and the band. They were absolutely marvellous. There are no words good enough to describe truly how much we loved them. Three encores! I think they didn't want to stop! I wish we had the whole event on video so we can relive it again. Our guests couldn't stop talking about it the next day and am sure they will be reliving all in their minds (as we are) over and over again.
